As the church and as a country, we've often neglected and avoided addressing the impact and ongoing reality of racism. We have been more focused on order than justice, more concerned with social media posturing than solidarity, more committed to judgment than repentance. But God's people are called to more. We need to lead the way to true racial healing, solidarity, and justice. And we need two things to do it: courage and love.

CHUCK MINGO

Chuck is the founder of UNDIVIDED, Inc. Through his passion for justice and racial solidarity, Chuck has transformed UNDIVIDED from a congregational training into a national movement. Chuck's leadership through UNDIVIDED has inspired and mobilized thousands from diverse backgrounds around the nation. In addition to leading UNDIVIDED, Chuck teaches and consults for churches and organizations around the country on a variety of topics related to race relations and racial justice. He earned his Bachelors in Business Administration at Duquesne University. For 13 years, Chuck has served as a teaching pastor at one of the largest churches in America, Crossroads Church. Prior to being a pastor, Chuck spent nine years in the corporate world at Procter & Gamble.

AREAS OF EXPERTISE: Social Justice, Church Culture, Organization and Church Leadership.

DR. TROY JACKSON

Community organizer, leader and writer, Troy Jackson, has been with UNDIVIDED since its founding. He is a graduate of Princeton Theological Seminary and earned his Doctor of Philosophy degree in U.S. history from the University of Kentucky. Troy's book Becoming King: Martin Luther King, Jr. and the Making of a National Leader (The University Press of Kentucky, 2008) explores the critical role the grassroots Montgomery Movement played in the development of Dr. King. His other publications include his work as an editor on The Papers of Martin Luther King, Jr. Volume VI: Advocate of the Social Gospel (September 1948-March 1963) (University of California Press, 2007).

AREAS OF EXPERTISE: Community Organizing, Biblical Call to Justice, Faith and Politics, History (Civil Rights, MLK), Exploring one's Race Story.
